

AQHA Australasia-Africa Summit

Thursday 18 July to Sunday 21 July 2019

Mercure Melbourne Treasury Gardens

Dear Members of the Australian Quarter Horse Association,

The American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) are hosting the inaugural Australasia-Africa Summit in Melbourne this July.

Below you will find the session schedules that will occur for this event.

Please note that to attend any of the sessions in the schedule you must be a current American Quarter Horse Association member. Membership can be paid online or on the day that you will be attending the Summit.

Education is a high priority for AQHA and AusAQHA and we encourage any member wishing to attend the Judges Education Day, the Professional Horsemen Reception or the Show Management Day to read the information set out below regarding bookings and fees.

Thursday 18 July - Welcome Reception

Friday 19 July - American Quarter Horse Association Business Summit Day

This will be a very enlightening session to learn more about the American Quarter Horse Association, receive an update on International programming and task forces as well as participate in educational breakout groups followed by a discussion.

Saturday 20 July - Judge Education Day

This day is not just for current American Quarter Horse Association Judges but for anyone interested in the judging side of our industry. Come and learn from industry professional, Joe Carter.

Sunday 21 July - Show Management Day

We encourage all to attend this day to learn from Kathy Avolt about show management. The sessions with Kathy will help you better plan for and manage shows.

Please RSVP for this event by June 15, 2019 to international@aqha.org and pa@aqha.com.au

Kind regards,
