

Annette Boyd

Annette is an active breeder of Australian Quarter Horses and owns a Western Saddlery specializing in custom shaped and designed western hats. Her vision is to see an expansion of the Amateur division to encourage further older riders at State and National levels as the Quarter is the perfect breed for older riders. Annette see the Trans Tasman experience as an opportunity to foster new and strengthen existing bonds between Australia & NZ

IT'S IN OUR BLOOD.